

Invitation for Webinar on “Solar Parks in India”

In order to commemorate 75 years of Indian Independence, the Government of India is organizing “Bharat Ka Amrut Mahotsav” in 75 dedicated weekly themes pertaining to respective sectors.

Keeping in view of this, Ministry of New & Renewable Energy is organizing a webinar on “Solar Parks in India” as a part of Bharat Ka Amrut Mahotsav.

The objective of the webinar is to discuss the progress of the solar park development in the country and its prospects with experienced panellists from the Government and Industrial segments.

All concerned are cordially invited to attend the virtual session on April 1, 2021, at 03:00 PM (India Standard Time).

The event is FREE for all participants; however, prior registration is required.
