<td>The DRC will consider all kinds of cases of appeal against decisions given by SECI/NTPC on disputes, as follows: (a). All requests for extension of time due to recognized ‘Force Majeure’ events like flood, earthquake, delay in handing over of land by Solar Park Developers, delay in connectivity, etc. will be dealt strictly as per Contractual Agreements, where applicable. In all such cases, the solar power developers/ wind power developers shall make an application to SECI/NTPC for grant of Extension of Time (EoT) within the time specified in the Contractual Agreement. If there is no time limit prescribed in the PPA for making such an application, then the application must be made within seven days of the cause of dispute taking place on the first occasion. If application is not made within the time limit prescribed, it shall be summarily rejected by SECI/ NTPC. If application is made within the time limit, the request will be examined and final decision given to solar power developer/ wind power developer within twenty-one (21) days by SECI/NTPC from the date of application. No separate extension of time shall be granted for overlapping periods of effect by two or more causes. If the developer is not satisfied with the decision of SECI/ NTPC, then it may appeal to the Dispute Resolution Committee (DRC), within 21 days of SECI/NTPC’s order. (b). All requests of Extension of Time not covered under the terms of contract; All cases involving unforeseen issues/</td>

circumstances not covered under Contractual Agreements like cases where the site is to be procured by the developer but there is delay in land allotment due to policy change or registration by the Government, delays in grant of proposed connectivity due to court stays, etc., will be placed before SECI/NTPC within seven days of the issue/circumstance arising on the first occasion. The final decision shall be given to solar power developer/wind power developer within twenty-one (21) days by SECI/NTPC from the date of application. No separate extension of time shall be granted for overlapping periods of effect by two or more causes. If the developer is not satisfied with the decision of SECI/NTPC, then it may appeal to the Dispute Resolution Committee (DRC), within 21 days of SECI/NTPC's order.

(c). All disputes other than those pertaining to 'Extension of Time' between SECI/NTPC and developers: All other disputes, apart from those pertaining to Extension of Time shall also be dealt as detailed at (b) above.

(d). All applications before DRC under (a), (b) and (c) above shall be accompanied with the applicable fee as detailed below:

(i). In case of Extension of Time dispute, the fee payable shall be 5% of the impact of SECI/NTPC's decision being challenged, with the impact being limited to the Performance Bank Guarantee (PBG) submitted for the project concerned. A minimum fee of Rs. 1,00,000/- (Rupees one lakh) would be payable even if the 5% of the impact of SECI/NTPC's decision being challenged, is less than Rs. one lakh.

(ii). Disputes not coming under the head, Extension of Time, in case there is a PBG covering the dispute, then the fee shall be same as in (i) above.

(iii). In case of disputes not coming under Extension of Time, in case there is no PBG covering the dispute, then the fee shall be 5% of the total impact of the dispute, which in no case be less than Rs. 1,00,000/- (Rupees one lakh) and not more than Rs. 1,00,00,000/- (Rupees one crore).
